HOW WE WORSHIP AND WHY – THE EASTER SEASON

Easter is not just a day, or even a week, but also a season. The forty days of Lent get the lion's share of attention, but the Easter season that follows it also lasts forty days and brings us to the Feast of Ascension, and then ten days later, on the fiftieth day, to Pentecost (which means "fiftieth") – which is why some people will speak of the "Great Fifty Days" of Easter. In the forty days between his resurrection and his ascension Christ appeared to his disciples on several occasions, confirmed their faith in the resurrection, and prepared them for a new mode of fellowship with him, no longer outwardly in the flesh, and limited in time and space, but inwardly in the Spirit and universally accessible. Ten days later, on Pentecost, he poured out this Spirit on his disciples, for the sake of the Church's mission to publish the gospel in the world. In these events the hidden victory he won upon the cross was revealed, its power released, its spoils distributed. For Christians, therefore, this is also a time of transition, not only from sorrow to joy, from sin to righteousness, from death to life, but also from life lived on the basis of merely human resources (what the Bible calls "the flesh") to life lived by the power of God ("the Spirit"). "Alleluia, the Lord is risen: he is risen indeed, alleluia".

THE ORDER FOR MORNING PRAYER.

This is the day which the LORD hath made;
we will rejoice and be glad in it. Psalm 118:24

Sentences and ExhortationPrayer Book, Page 3-6
Dearly beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us . . .

A General Confession (Said by all, kneeling.)

ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father; We have erred, and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Minister: O Lord, open thou our lips.

Answer: And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Minister: O God, make speed to save us.

Answer: O Lord, make haste to help us. (All stand.)

Minister: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

Answer: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Minister: Praise ye the Lord.

Answer: The Lord's Name be praised.

EASTER ANTHEMS (Sung by all.) #680 John Goss

Psalm 81. Exaltabo te, Domine. (Versus said alternately.) Prayer Book, Page 442-443

The Old Testament Lesson (All sit.): Isaiah 51:1-11

The assurance of everlasting salvation, in a new spiritual exodus.

THUS saith the Lord: Hearken to me, ye that follow after righteousness,
ye that seek the LORD:

look unto the rock whence ye are hewn,
and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

²Look unto Abraham your father,
and unto Sarah that bare you:

for I called him alone,
and blessed him, and increased him.

³For the LORD shall comfort Zion:
he will comfort all her waste places;
and he will make her wilderness like Eden,
and her desert like the garden of the LORD;
joy and gladness shall be found therein,
thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

⁴Hearken unto me, my people;
and give ear unto me, O my nation:
for a law shall proceed from me,
and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people.

⁵My righteousness is near;
my salvation is gone forth,
and mine arms shall judge the people;
the isles shall wait upon me,
and on mine arm shall they trust.

⁶Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
and look upon the earth beneath:
for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke,
and the earth shall wax old like a garment,
and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner:
but my salvation shall be for ever,
and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

⁷Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness,
the people in whose heart is my law;

fear ye not the reproach of men,
neither be ye afraid of their revilings.
⁸ For the moth shall eat them up like a garment,
and the worm shall eat them like wool:
but my righteousness shall be for ever,
and my salvation from generation to generation.

⁹ Awake, awake, put on strength,
O arm of the LORD;
awake, as in the ancient days,
in the generations of old.
Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab,
and wounded the dragon?
¹⁰ Art thou not it which hath dried the sea,
the waters of the great deep;
that hath made the depths of the sea
a way for the ransomed to pass over?
¹¹ Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return,
and come with singing unto Zion;
and everlasting joy shall be upon their head:
they shall obtain gladness and joy;
and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

(The congregation may be seated.)

ANTHEM (All sit.) Bless the Lord, O my soul.....Cecil Gibbs

Bless the Lord, O my soul.

O Lord my God, Thou art very great;

Thou art clothed with honour and majesty.

Who coverest Thyself with light, as with a garment:

Who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:

Who layeth the beams of His chamber in the waters:

Who maketh the clouds His chariot: who walketh upon the wings of the wind:

Who maketh His angels spirits, His ministers a flaming fire:

He sendeth springs into the valleys, which run among the hills.

They give drink to every beast of the field:

the wild asses quench their thirst.

By them shall the fowls of heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches.

He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man:

that he may bring forth food out of the earth;

and wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face shine,

And bread with strengtheneth man's heart.

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy servants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men; We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.
