I believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God; Begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God; Begotten, not made; Being of one substance with the Father; By whom all things were made: Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man: And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; He suffered and was buried: And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures: And ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the Father: And he shall come again, with glory, to judge both the quick and the dead; Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, The Lord, and Giver of Life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified; Who spake by the Prophets: And I believe one Catholic and Apostolic Church: I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins: And I look for the ☩ Resurrection of the dead: And the Life of the world to come. Amen.

THE NOTICES

THE ADDRESS

THE OFFERTORY

The People stand and the Priest begins the Offertory with a sentence of scripture. After which, the People sit.

THE ANTHEM

Thou God of truth and love, we seek thy perfect way,
ready thy choice to approve, thy providence to obey:
Enter into thy wise design, and sweetly lose our will in thine.

Why hast thou cast our lot, in this same age and place,
and why together brought to see each other's face;
to join in loving sympathy and mix our friendly souls in thee?

Didst thou not make us one, that we might one remain?
Together travel on and bear each others pain;
till all thy utmost goodness prove and rise renewed in perfect love.

O may thy Spirit seal our souls unto that day,
with all thy fullness fill, and then transport us away,
away to our eternal rest, our Redeemer's breast. Amen.

Words: Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, Which we, from time to time, most grievously have committed, By thought, word, and deed, Against thy Divine Majesty, Provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, And are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; The remembrance of them is grievous unto us; The burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, Forgive us all that is past; And grant that we may ever hereafter Serve and please thee In newness of life, To the honour and glory of thy Name; Through Jesus Christ our Lord. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE PRAYER OF HUMBLE ACCESS

BCP, p. 82

We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy: Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Then is sung

AGNUS DEI (sung by All)

Hymnal, 712

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

Those who are baptized, have attained to years of discretion, and have been admitted to communion (which at St. John's, is normally by confirmation, but for visitors may have taken place by other means) are welcome to receive the Sacrament. All others are welcome to receive a blessing at the altar rail by kneeling and crossing your arms over your chest.

To receive the Host, please place your right hand over left, at the level of your chest, and lift the Host to your lips. To receive the chalice, keep your head and neck straight, lightly grasp the bowl or stem of the chalice and guide it to your lips.

Self-intinction (dipping) of the Host is not permitted for hygiene reasons. If you do not wish to receive the chalice, you may depart after receiving the Host, or cross your arms over your chest.

And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. HOW WE WORSHIP – FORM OF DELIVERY

When the priest delivers the elements of bread and wine to the communicants, he recites a form of words, sometimes called the "form of administration" or "form of delivery". The first sentence follows an ancient tradition. It is a declaration of what it is that we objectively receive "after an heavenly and spiritual manner" in the Sacrament - the very same "Body and Blood of Christ, which was given for thee" upon the cross - and of what benefits it imparts - to "preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life". (John 6:32, 51, 54). The second sentence echoes the words of Jesus himself at the Last Supper (1 Corinthians 11:24, 25): "Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee"; "Drink this in remembrance that Christ died for thee" - but adds to them an exhortation to faithful and grateful reception of the Sacrament: "feed on him in thy heart by faith with thanksgiving", "and be thankful". If the first sentence declared what we receive - the Body and Blood of Christ; the second sentence direct us how to receive it to our benefit - by faith, and grateful remembrance. Notice that in both sentences appear the words "for thee" - which means "for you personally and individually". The gracious promises of Christ are broadcast generally in the word of God; but in the sacraments, they are applied to specific individuals, to the strengthening and confirming of our faith. Christ gave his life for many - yes - but did he give his life for me? In the face of our flickering faith, the sacraments speak powerfully to assure and comfort us of the security that is ours in Christ.
